Consider this when you read the terms and conditions:

1. The terms and conditions should be read together with the insurance policy / booking confirmation which together constitutes the insurance contract. If special conditions apply for your insurance this will be stated in the insurance policy.
2. Please note that additional coverages only apply if stated in your insurance policy / booking confirmation.
3. Limitations, exclusions and precautions / security directives are marked in grey.
4. All words in italics are defined at the end of the insurance conditions.

Insurance provider for this insurance:

Europæiske Rejseforsikring A/S,
hereinafter called Europæiske ERV

Frederiksberg Allé 3
DK-1790 København V
CVR no: 62940514

The provider is under supervision of the Danish Financial Supervisory Authority.

A Who can take out the insurance and who can be insured

The person purchasing the insurance must be at least 18 years old and a permanent resident in Denmark, The Faroe Islands, Greenland, Norway or Sweden.

The insurance applies to persons who are named in the insurance policy and at the time of purchase of the insurance are permanent residents in the EU/EEA.

The persons named in the insurance policy are the insured in accordance with these terms and conditions and are referred to as "you".

B What can be insured?

You can insure trips, tickets, accommodation, rental car, course fees or other events that are offered to the public and that are priced according to a fixed price list.

C When the insurance should be taken out and paid for

The insurance must be taken out at the same time as booking the trip/event, but no later than two days after payment of the deposit or the full amount if no deposit is paid, unless otherwise agreed with Europæiske ERV.

The insurance cannot be taken out or paid for later than three days before a trip/event commences.

D When the insurance applies

The insurance applies upon issuing of the policy, provided that payment for the insurance is made in accordance with the payment terms set out in the invoice/policy. The insurance ceases to apply once the trip/event commences.

The trip has commenced once you have checked in at the airport/bus/train/boat terminal. The event has commenced once you have passed the entrance to the event.

1. Cancellation

1.1 What is covered

The insurance covers your share of the cancellation costs that can be charged according to the set cancellation provisions of the trip/event provider(s), if you or a co-insured person is prevented from going on a trip/attending an event or if the purpose of the trip/event cannot be fulfilled due to:

- a) Death or serious acute illness or accident affecting you or co-traveller.
- b) Death or serious acute illness leading to hospitalisation of your close relative other than those accompanying you.
- c) Unofficial walk-outs by employees in your own company immediately prior to your departure.
- d) Fire, flooding, burglary or storm damage in or to your private residence or company immediately prior to your departure.
- e) Cases where you have to re-sit an examination because you failed it first time round or have had to cancel an examination for a registered SU full-time course of study due to acute illness or injury. It is a requirement that the trip was booked and paid for prior to the examination and that the re-sitting of the examination is to take place during the travel period or up to two weeks after your planned return home.
- f) Cases where you, on medical grounds, are unable to get a vaccination that is being introduced during the period of insurance and after booking the trip and which is a requirement for travel to the country you are to travel to.
- g) In cases where you are pregnant and cannot be vaccinated due to the risk it poses to the health of the fetus. It is a condition that you were not pregnant when you purchased the trip.
- h) Unexpected illness or complications for the mother/fetus arising out of pregnancy or birth, if the conditions for coverage are otherwise fulfilled.
- i) Your employer's unexpected termination of your employment or lock-out of employees. The termination or lock-out must occur during the period of insurance and less than 3 months prior to departure.
- j) Cases where you start a new job due to your former employer unexpectedly terminating your employment with the result that you are unable to take holidays for the full duration of the trip.
- k) Divorce, separation or cessation of cohabitation. At the end of the cohabitation it is a condition that you and your partner have had the same address as registered in the National Register of Persons for a minimum period of 12 months prior to the cessation of cohabitation.
- l) Cases where you are unable to get the prior medical approval from Europæiske ERV that is required in order to purchase travel insurance. It is a condition that the ailments that result in you being unable to obtain prior medical approval were not present when you purchased the trip and cancellation insurance.

- m) That you can not start or complete a motoring or camping holiday because your car or camper van is affected by a damage that is covered by a standard comprehensive insurance policy and prevents using your car or camper van during the trip. The insurance only covers claims occurred in the last 8 days before departure on conditions that it could not be fixed before departure.

The insurance will cover in cases where cancellation, in accordance with points (a)-(k) of paragraph 1.1, has the effect that the insured would otherwise have to travel alone.

Please note:

- The reason for the cancellation must have occurred after the insurance was taken out.
- You must be able to verify, in a satisfactory way, the reason for the cancellation by means of a certificate/document from an impartial doctor, police officer, employer, or certificate from public authority or similar. The certificate must state the reason for the cancellation. A fee for documentation will not be paid by Europæiske ERV, if applicable.
- Contact with the issuer of the certificate must have taken place before the intended start date of the trip/event.
- Only one insurance policy can be taken out per person/group/trip/event.

1.2 Maximum compensation

The maximum compensation is stated in the insurance policy. If any excess applies, the excess will be specifically stated in the insurance policy.

Unless otherwise agreed with Europæiske ERV the total maximum compensation is DKK 200,000 if several persons cancel due to one and the same claim event. This applies regardless of the number of insurance policies covering the claims event.

1.3 Limitations / Exclusions

You will not receive compensation:

- If the reason for the cancellation is due to pregnancy or birth from the 37th week of pregnancy
- If the trip/event has been advised against by the attending doctor at the time of booking.
- In the event of bankruptcy or intervention by authorities. If the reason for the cancellation is that actions essential for the trip/event have not been taken or have not been completed, e.g. passport, visa, vaccinations or similar.

Any disputes arising from or relating to the insurance agreement shall be governed by Danish law and may be settled by the district court of first instance in the area where you live or by the City Court ("Byretten") of Copenhagen, Denmark should you wish so.

Dual insurance

The insurance does not cover costs or pay out compensation for claims that have already been covered by another insurance company or credit card. Each company, however, is liable towards you as the insured as if that company alone was liable for the claim, but with a right of recourse and division of the liability between the insurance companies in proportion to the respective liability amounts.

In the case of a claim, you are obligated to inform us of any other insurance taken out with another company and/or whether you have a credit card.

Recovery of compensation

To the extent that the insured and / or the policyholder have received compensation from this insurance, Europæiske ERV is fully and completely subrogated in all the insured's rights towards third parties. Third parties are defined as companies and public authorities both domestic and abroad who are, or can be made, liable to pay compensation or a contribution in connection with any case regarding a claim under this insurance.

Filing of a claim and payment of compensation

In the event of a claim, please register your claim as soon as possible by filling out a claims form on our website: www.erv.dk.

If it is not possible for you to fill out the claims form online, you can request a claims form by contacting Europæiske ERV.

In addition to the claims form, the documents listed under 1.4 may be required.

Limitations/Exclusions

Claims that are not made in accordance with these terms and conditions may lead to compensation being reduced or not paid at all.

In case of travel insurance policies providing cover for more than 30 days the following right of cancellation applies:

- a) You have the right to cancel in accordance with the law on insurance agreements in force at any given time.
- b) The deadline for the right of cancellation is 14 days. The deadline is calculated from the day on which the insurance terms and conditions are sent to you/received by you, but no earlier than the time at which you have received notification that the insurance agreement has been completed. If, for example, you receive the insurance terms and conditions on Monday the 1st you have up to and including the 15th to withdraw. If the deadline expires on a public holiday, a Saturday, Sunday or Constitution Day, you can wait until the next working day.
- c) You must inform Europæiske ERV that you have changed your mind about the agreement before the expiry of the cancellation deadline. If this notification is sent by post you must send the letter before the expiry of the deadline.
